LEASETEAM ANNOUNCES A NEW EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

OMAHA, Neb., (August 14, 2014) – LeaseTeam, Inc. the premier end-to-end solution provider to the Equipment Finance Industry, announces a new executive management structure. This new structure will enable the company to continue capitalizing on the success of ASPIRE™ by placing an even greater focus on their customer-centric approach to operational excellence and providing progressive solutions to the equipment finance industry.

Organizational changes include:

- Russ Hallberg to Chief Executive Officer and chairman
- Randy Haug to Executive Vice President and vice chairman
- Dan O'Malley to president and chief operating officer
- Jeff Van Slyke to executive vice president and chief business development officer

"These changes strengthen our leadership team by aligning them with specific areas of focus. We've had tremendous success with ASPIRE, our complete end-to-end lease and loan management solution, and we've just begun to tap into its potential. The new alignment of our executive team will position us to best capitalize on the strategic and operational opportunities in the years ahead," said Russ Hallberg, chairman and chief executive officer.

Randy Haug, vice chairman and executive vice president at LeaseTeam, continues, "These organizational changes will increase transparency for business functions relative to the company's strategic roadmap, sharpening our focus on customer-facing solutions. As a company, our main focus has always been about helping our customers reach their goals. We feel these changes best position us to keep that focus at the forefront of our strategic goals, now and into the future."
