LTi Technology Solutions Opens Registration for its 2019 Users Conference

OMAHA, Neb., (April 30, 2019) – LTi Technology Solutions, formerly LeaseTeam, Inc., the premier software solutions provider for the equipment leasing & finance industry for 30 years, announced open registration for its 2019 Annual User Conference. This years' theme TAKE THE LEAD is designed to support finding solutions to key pain points experienced in the equipment finance industry. It also provides sessions that give attendees insight into LTi's technologies, visions, and roadmaps. This three-day educational and networking event is open to LTi clients and prospective business partners alike. It reinforces LTi's commitment to building partnerships and providing an exceptional customer experience.

LTi 2019 will be taking place at CHI Convention Center, formerly CenturyLink Center in Omaha, Nebraska. With speakers ranging from thought leaders to LTi customers, LTi 2019 provides an ideal platform to stay on top of the latest trends in LTi's products, integrations, and the equipment finance industry. The conference will feature updates to LTi's software ASPIRE, while providing additional tools and resources to help attendees "Take the Lead" in their industry. The conference also offers three different unique roundtables. It is a great place for attendees to provide direct feedback and offer input for the future of LTi's software functionality and business goals.

LTi President and CEO, Jeff Van Slyke, remarked: "We have a great lineup of speakers this year on topics emphasizing collaborative discussions with our product teams and sessions including hands-on training. LTi 2019 is sure to be highly impactful for all participants." Over the last few years, LTi has partnered with a few industry leaders — such as KEF, Docusign, and JDR— who will be participating in a panel at this year's event.

"Since we started LTi over three decades ago, the conference has evolved to meet the changing needs of the industry, but its purpose has never wavered — to empower finance and lease professionals with the most actionable strategies for improving their equipment finance efficiencies," said Jeff Van Slyke, President and CEO at LTi. "With technological advancements in equipment and software, it's vital for businesses to keep a pulse on the industry by attending conferences such as our User Conference."
