LTi Technology Solutions Names Amy Manning Chief Customer Officer

OMAHA, NE, September 1, 2026 – LTi Technology Solutions (LTi), a leading provider of lifecycle software solutions for the equipment finance industry, announced that Amy Manning has been named Chief Customer Officer (CCO). In this role, she will lead the company's full post-sale customer experience, including Customer Success, Professional Services, and Customer Support, and will serve as a member of the executive leadership team.

Amy has served as LTi's interim CCO, where she's already made a significant impact on the company's customer organization. Her appointment to the role on a permanent basis reflects that impact and the company's continued investment in scaling our customer-centric organization.

"Amy has already shown us what great customer leadership looks like, and this is a big win for LTi," said Jeff Van Slyke, President and CEO of LTi. "She combines deep experience with genuine care for our customers' success, and that combination is going to be a huge part of how we grow from here. I'm excited for our customers to see what she and her team build next."

Amy brings nearly 20 years of Customer Success leadership experience in B2B SaaS to the role. She's known for combining data and process with a hands-on approach to helping customers realize measurable value from their technology investments, and for building high-performing teams.

"The team here is awesome, there's a lot of smart, caring people, excited to do great things for customers," said Amy. "I'm confident LTi is going to be wildly successful and thrilled to be part of the journey."
